

Climate Psychology Alliance Member's Day June 10th 9.30-5pm

Telling Better Stories...

The Guild of Psychotherapists, 47 Nelson Sq, London SE1

Call for stories!

Tell us your story and share your experiences and feelings about the psychological and emotional implications of dealing with climate change....
We invite short contributions from CPA members about their work or particular approach to climate psychology. This can be a presentation, discussion, mini-workshop or whatever best works for you. Please send an abstract for a 10-15 minute contribution to: sarahdeco@me.com or julian\_manley@yahoo.com

Andrew Simms our speaker is a political economist and environmentalist who has written widely on both global and local economies. He is a co-founder of the think-tank The New Weather Institute and is a regular contributor to The Guardian. Andrew is also editor of and contributor to a book of traditional tales re-told for modern times called There was a knock at the door: 23 tales for troubled times.

9.30 Registration and coffee
10.00 Andrew Simms - Telling Better Stories
10.45 Break
11.15 Discussion
12.30 13.45 Lunch
13.45 Member's presentations and discussion
16.15 - 17.00 AGM members only

Free for members. Non members £20.
Membership of the CPA (£24) can be secured on the day between 09.30-10.00)
To book or RSVP please email, info@climatepsychologyalliance.org

